MISSION BAY SPLASH

Market Update, Polson Events, Mountain Photos

NEW ENTHUSIASM FOR 2010?

by Dennis Duty, Broker Owner

Thanks to all of you who have emailed me or talked to me about how much you enjoy Jan Myers' photographs and the information we include in each Splash. We plan to bring you a new Splash of information and photographs every month from now through the summer.

Since we are in the real estate business, we like to update everyone on what's happening in that arena, but we would also like to include other topics that might be of interest to homeowners in Mission Bay, those who are interested in moving to our area, and our friends who live and work in the Flathead and Mission Valleys. Please drop in, email or call me with any topics you would like to see included in Splash and we will do our best to do just that.

2009 was a challenging year for the economy and the real estate market. High unemployment and other changes have given us all reasons for concern. Personally, it has been a time to reflect upon the important aspects of my life. How fortunate I am to live in such a beautiful part of the world, that I have such a great family, and that we should not take our good health for granted. I thank everyone who has been so kind this past year, offering encouragement even though you have been facing your own set of challenges.

Mission Bay Cottage on the Golf Course

A new enthusiasm seems to be brewing for 2010. We here in Mission Bay Realty have definitely experienced a renewed interest in real estate. The folks I have been talking with believe that we are at or at least close to the bottom of the market and are concerned that interest rates will be taking a hike in the near future. The Federal government is offering tax breaks through April and there is a great supply of homes and land with willing sellers. We in the business call this a Buyer's Market, and people are shaking off the winter blues and coming out to take advantage of the large inventory and low interest rates.

River Landing Cabin

If anyone out there has been interested in purchasing a new home, or investing in real estate, this is a great opportunity. Please come in our office here in Mission Bay and see Mac, Brooke or Brandy--they would be happy to help you with listing your property, give you an update on financing or answer any questions on properties currently on the market.

Hope everyone has a healthy 2010!
